

Recommended framework for social assessment of applicants

- Used methods
- Full name
- Age
- Education
- Current occupation: working hours, parental leave guaranteed by law and other possibilities for the applicant to stay at home with the child, in order for the child to adapt to the new family
- Religion
- Number of previous marriages/serious relationships
- Number and age of other children growing up in family (biological, adopted or in foster care, age of coming into family, time spent in family, their adaptation in family, adaptation to the environment of educational institution)
- Relationship and bonds with close acquaintances (family, friends, community)
- Leisure time activities, hobbies and lifestyle
- Attitude of relatives toward adoption plans
- Suitability of life conditions for child or more children (apartment, house, garden, pets/animals, infrastructure, rarities)
- Financial situation (occupation, incomes, expenses, debts/loan, financial planning regarding the child)
- Summary and conclusion, overall impression