NOTIFICATION (ACCRREDITATION)

In accordance with the 1961 Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, Article 10, and the 1963 Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, Article 24, diplomatic missions, consular posts, international organisations and representations of international organisations in the Republic of Slovenia are obliged to notify the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Diplomatic Protocol, by verbal note, of the appointment, dates of arrival and departure, termination of functions, and any change of status of their heads and members, as well as of the dates of arrival and departure and any change of status of their family members enjoying privileges and immunities under international law.

Pursuant to the Foreign Affairs Act, Article 61 (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia nos. 113/03 – official consolidated text, 76/08, 108/09, 31/15), a non-residential diplomatic mission shall accredit with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Diplomatic Protocol, by verbal note, only those members of the mission whose work directly concerns relations with the Republic of Slovenia.

DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR AND SERVICE IDENTITY CARDS

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia issues diplomatic or service identity cards to accredited members of diplomatic missions, international organisations and representations of international organisations in the Republic of Slovenia, and their family members.

Consular or service identity cards are issued to heads of consular posts, consular staff members, their family members, and honorary consular officers.

With the consent of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, a sending state may accredit to the Republic of Slovenia members of the diplomatic staff and the head of the diplomatic mission following their accreditation to the state in which the diplomatic mission has its permanent seat. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs issues diplomatic identity cards to the non-resident head of the mission and to a maximum of two members of the diplomatic staff of the mission, whose work directly concerns relations with the Republic of Slovenia (Foreign Affairs Act, Article 61).

The diplomatic/consular/service identity card is a public document attesting the holder's identity and special status. At the same time, it is a permit for temporary residence in the Republic of Slovenia, so that its holder is not obliged to apply for a temporary residence permit for the duration of their accreditation to the Republic of Slovenia.

An identity card holder who is a non-resident member of a diplomatic mission does not require a visa to enter or stay in the Republic of Slovenia (Foreign Affairs Act, Article 61).

<th>IDENTITY CARD VALIDITY</th>
</tr>
</thead>

The diplomatic/consular/service identity card is valid for not less than three (3) months and not more than four (4) years; in any case, its validity may not exceed the period of validity of the holder’s passport. After expiry, a one-year extension of the identity card is generally possible. A family member’s identity card is valid up to 4 years, or until the expiry date of the identity card of the principal holder they are accompanying. The validity of a family member’s identity card may not exceed that of the principal holder’s identity card. If the validity of a family member’s passport is shorter than that of the principal applicant’s identity card, the family member’s identity card is valid until the expiry date of the passport.

Regardless of the card’s validity, the holder must apply for a new identity card if their personal details change, if they can no longer be recognised from the photo, or if the card is damaged, worn out, or cannot be used for any other reason.

The renewal of the identity card is subject to the same conditions as the issuing of the initial identity card. Before the issue of a new identity card, the original card must be returned to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia.

Upon the arrival of a new member of the mission, their predecessor’s identity card must also be returned; failing that, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia will refuse to issue an identity card to the new member of the mission.

Based on the premise that members of diplomatic missions and consular posts in the Republic of Slovenia are subject to rotation, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia has the discretion to decide on the extension of identity card validity on a case-by-case basis. A member of the staff, with the exception of the head of the mission, may be assigned for no longer than 10 years.
Diplomatic missions, consular posts, international organisations, or representations of international organisation in the Republic of Slovenia shall send an identity card application form by verbal note to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Diplomatic Protocol, within 7 days of the applicant's arrival to the Republic of Slovenia.

All sections of the application form must be completed legibly. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Diplomatic Protocol, will only take into consideration complete applications. Any incomplete application form will be returned to the applicant.

The application form (Form 5 for mission members and Form 5 B for family members) is in A4 paper format and contains data on the mission, the applicant's personal details, status and post, the signatures of the applicant and the head of the mission/authorised person, the stamp of the mission, and the place and date of the application.

By signing the form, the applicant confirms its accuracy and assumes the obligation to notify the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Diplomatic Protocol, of any changes to the data contained in the application or the circumstances serving as the base of issuing, and to return the identity card to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs if reasons for its cancellation should occur.

The application must include an enclosure – completed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia, Diplomatic Protocol – that contains the applicant's signature. The entire signature must be within the signature field and written in black ink to allow digital transfer to the identity card. Children under eight (8) years of age do not need to provide a signature.

The application must also include an unretouched applicant's photo, showing their true appearance. The 3.5 x 4.5 cm photo must be in colour and made on thin white glossy photographic paper. Photos taken in a photo booth will not be accepted. The applicant must be facing forwards and looking straight at the camera, without their forehead or face covered and without any head covering. Persons who in their daily life wear a head covering as tradition demands in the sending state, may exceptionally submit a photo with their head covered; however, their face and forehead must remain uncovered.

The application form must also include the original or a copy of the applicant's passport (diplomatic, service or special passport) for verification, and a copy of the passport page containing the applicant's personal details, title and post. If the sending state nationals require a visa to enter the Republic of Slovenia, the application form must include a copy of the entry visa. The application form of a non-resident applicant must include a copy of the identity card issued by the state in which the diplomatic mission has its permanent seat.
