

International development cooperation of Slovenia in 2017

How much?

EUR 67,229,443

The funds for Official Development Aid totalled EUR 67,229,443, i.e. 0,16 % of Gross National Income, EUR 22,105,078 of which Slovenia allocated for bilateral development aid and EUR 45,124,364 for multilateral aid.

To whom?

Priority geographical areas

- Western Balkans
- Eastern Europe, the Caucasus and Central Asia
- Africa

For what purposes?

Priority areas in development cooperation

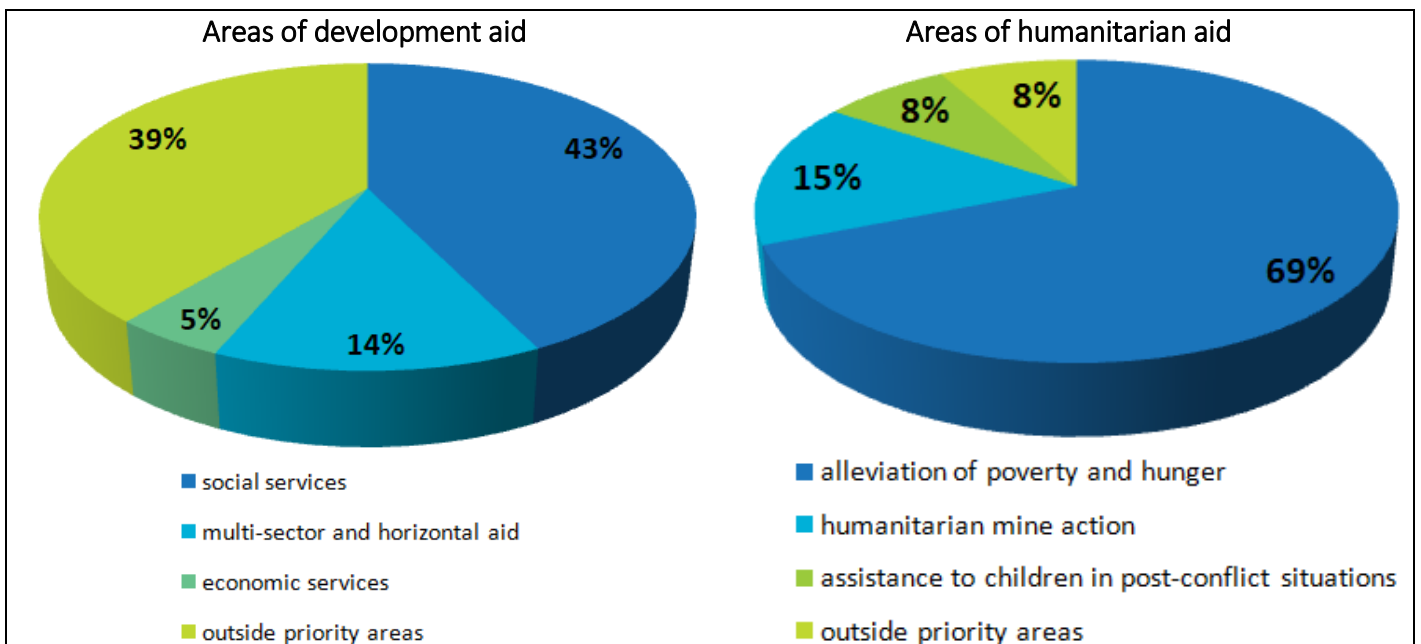

- strengthening good governance and the rule of law, with an emphasis on Euro-Atlantic integration
- environmental protection, with an emphasis on sustainable water management
- women's empowerment and concern for the well-being of children as cross-cutting issues

Priority areas in humanitarian and post-conflict aid

- alleviation of poverty and hunger
- mine action
- assistance to children in post-conflict situations

Slovenia allocated EUR 17,044,826 for the priority areas in development cooperation and humanitarian and post-conflict aid.

Priority areas in bilateral development aid in 2017	in EUR
Social services: education, public administration and local self government, public finances, other social infrastructure and services, health	10,894,392
Multi-sector and horizontal aid: civil-military cooperation, access to drinking water, environmental infrastructure, good governance with an emphasis on human rights and equal opportunities	3,765,225
Economic services: information and communication technology, promotion of small and medium-sized enterprises	374,606
Humanitarian and post-conflict aid: mine action, alleviation of poverty and hunger, assistance to children in post-conflict situations	2,010,603
Total	17,044,826

Who?

Providers of bilateral development aid can be grouped into four categories: public institutions (direct and indirect budget users, private institutions, vested with public authority by the Slovenian government), private institutions (private humanitarian and non-profit institutions, founded or co-founded by the Slovenian Government, Slovenian NGOs and renowned international NGOs), international organisations (earmarked contributions), and other providers.

Provider	in EUR
Budget users	11,286,346
Private institutions	2,504,166
Implementing institutions	915,830
NGOs	902,485
Slovenian NGOs	(637,434)
Other NGOs	(265,051)
International organisations	3,251,994
Other providers	314,233
Total available bilateral aid	19,175,054