Ljubljana, 26. november 2013

EFSA informacijska točka, ki deluje na Ministrstvu za kmetijstvo in okolje, v sodelovanju z Evropsko agencijo za varnost hrane in Inštitutom za varovanje zdravja, organizira strokovno srečanje Spoznajmo alergene v hrani.

Vsebine srečanja bodo namenjene varnosti hrane in izzivom, ki jih prinašajo alergene sestavine v naši hrani nosilcem živilske dejavnosti, strokovnim in nadzornim institucijam ter potrošnikom. Predstavljene bodo aktivnosti Evropske agencije za varnost hrane na področju ocene tveganja, zdravstveni vidik tveganja in izkušnje pri izvajanju analize tveganja za alergene v hrani. Prikazani bodo rezultati raziskave javnega mnenja o varnosti hrane in prepoznavnosti EFSA v Sloveniji, ki je bila izvedena septembra 2013.

Srečanje bo priložnost za razpravo o varnosti hrane in tveganjih, ki jih predstavljajo alergeni v naši hrani. Znanje in sodelovanje sta ključna dejavnika za učinkovito soočanje z izzivi na področju zagotavljanja varnosti hrane in učinkovito obvladovanje tveganj krepiti zaupanje potrošnikov v oskrbo s hrano.

The Ministry of Agriculture and the Environment, EFSA Focal Point, in cooperation with the European Food Safety Agency and the National Institute of Public Health, organises an expert meeting on food safety and allergens in food entitled Meet the Allergens in Food.

The main focus of the meeting will be food safety and challenges that food business, professional and supervisory institutions and consumer are facing in relation to allergenic ingredients in our food. Followed by presentation of the activities of the European Food Safety Authority performed in the field of risk assessment and also health risks and experiences in the implementation of risk analysis for allergens in food. Moreover, the results of the opinion poll on the food safety and the visibility of the European Food Safety Authority in Slovenia, which was conducted in September 2013.

The meeting will be an opportunity to discuss food safety and the risks posed by allergens in our food. Knowledge and cooperation are key factors to address effectively the challenges in ensuring food safety; and effective risk management enhances consumer confidence in the food supply.
