

Statement by the Republic of Slovenia
at the
31th Session of the UPR Working Group – Review of Monaco

Geneva, 12 November 2018

Mr President,

Slovenia would like to thank the delegation of Monaco for the national report, its presentation today and their commitment to the UPR process.

Slovenia notes the recommendations by the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women and recommends to Monaco to consider reviewing its reservations to CEDAW.

We warmly welcome the information on numerous ratifications since the last UPR, especially the ratifications of CRPD, two optional protocols to CEDAW and CRC and the Istanbul and Lanzarote Convention. We further welcome the strengthening of the institutional framework for the protection and promotion of human rights in particular the establishment of the national human rights institution.

Slovenia acknowledges the efforts made in the area of protection of human rights of older persons and would welcome continued efforts to strengthen intergenerational cooperation and solidarity.

Thank you.
